Subject: Clarification

Hi Ann,

During our conversation yesterday, you asked why I was bringing the Flint issue up again. I forgot to mention that I had received some money that I did not need and was hoping to purchase some closure for myself by putting the burden on anyone else.

I contacted Mlive advertising and tried to purchase a full page ad in the Flint Journal. I wrote an open letter to Michael Moore to get him involved. I was quoted $5000.00 for the ad, and tried to get a redacted version of the DHS 55. - disciplinary notice published because it screams the same quiet parts out loud.

The paper wouldn't print it, I tried another couple versions unsuccessfully. Upon asking what they would be willing to print, they advised me an ad wasn't appropriate and suggest I contact the newsroom as it really should be a story. I'm not holding my breath because they barely wrote the first story, and then could not comprehend the absurdity of Bob Wheaton claiming that my phone number was wrong while the DHS 55 confirms it was the number provided.

There is an entire community that deserves to be heard and another that needs to be held accountable. Neither has happened in Flint and the results are pretty obvious.
